San Diego Public Library Conjures Up Plenty of Spooky Halloween Fun

Many Fun and Chilling Activities Planned at City Libraries in October

SAN DIEGO – Children are invited to celebrate Halloween and be tricked and treated with a variety of “Scary Library” events and activities scheduled at several City libraries through Oct. 31. The spooky good fun will include Halloween parties, films, holiday craft activities, scary stories, and mad science experiments.

“Children are encouraged to wear their costumes at the many events and haunt the City’s libraries as goblins, witches, ghosts and other favorite characters,” said City Librarian Anna Tatár. “The Library’s Halloween programs provide children with fun, safe activities where they can enjoy the holiday and learn something, too.”

City libraries providing the spine-chilling fun include the Central Library and the following branches: Allied Gardens/Benjamin, Carmel Mountain Ranch, Carmel Valley, City Heights/Weingart, Clairemont, College-Rolando, La Jolla/Riford, Logan Heights, Mountain View/Beckwourth, Point Loma/Hervey, San Carlos, Scripps Miramar Ranch and San Ysidro.

The scheduled Halloween activities at City libraries through Oct. 31 include:

Oct. 1-19

Halloween Coloring Contest – Children and teens can enter a Halloween coloring contest and receive special prizes. Coloring sheets can be picked up at the library beginning Oct. 1. City Heights/Weingart Branch Library, 3795 Fairmount Ave., 619-641-6100.
